

Great Northwest Region Conference
 ARMA International
 April 15-16, 2010
 Red Lion Inn- Bellevue

Dear Potential Sponsor,

The 2010 Great Northwest Region Conference is being hosted by the Bellevue-Eastside, Greater Seattle, and Puget Sound Chapters. The three ARMA chapters enjoy over 300 members. The Region will also invite the members from Alaska, Idaho, Eastern Washington, and Oregon. The 2010 Region Conference theme will be Reaching Island Paradise: RIM Tools and Resources and sessions will include: How to Talk the IT Talk, Email Management, Records Retention Schedules: the Core of your Island, Taxonomy and Classification, Surviving the Island with Strategic Alliances, What to do when the Hurricane Hits, SharePoint 2010, ECM Development, 4 Years Later: Surviving the ERMS project, Developing a Social Media Policy, and much more.

Members will be attending educational sessions, but the Region has designed opportunities for vendors to network and share information with the attendees. For sponsorship levels, special sponsor opportunities, and highlights of time attendees will be able to visit you, see below.
