ARMA International

The Authority on Managing Records & Information

Reaching Island Paradise: RIM Tools and Resources

The Great Northwest Region Conference occurs every two years and rotates among the regional chapters. The Region Conference is designed to allow regional members to attend a professional ARMA conference at the local level. Members will attend a professional event to ensure they are receiving education from their peers in records and information management. The Region Conference is also an opportunity to network and share information with vendors and understand products of their field.

Location:

Red Lion Inn-Bellevue
11211 Main Street,
Bellevue, WA 98004
Tel: 425-455-5250

Conference Room Rate:
$99 a night

The 2010 Great Northwest Region Conference is being hosted by three chapters: Bellevue Eastside, Greater Seattle, and Puget Sound Chapters. The three chapters boast a membership of almost 300. The Great Northwest Region will also invite the members from Alaska, Idaho, Eastern Washington, Oregon and targeted related organizations in the Seattle-Puget Sound area.
